

Patrícia Calado

IMI States Representatives Group, Portugal

Patrícia Calado represents Portugal in the IMI States Representatives Group.

Patrícia is the Portuguese National Contact Point for Health, Demographic Change and Wellbeing (Societal Challenge 1) and Innovative Medicines Initiative (IMI) since January 2015. Patrícia worked for the Foundation for Science and Technology, under the Ministry of Science, Technology and Higher Education, and she is now Member of the Board of the recently created Agency for Clinical Research and Biomedical Innovation (AICIB).

Previous positions

- Professor, Polytechnic Institute of Setúbal in 2014
- Senior Consultant – Support Functions, Capgemini Portugal in 2014
- Bioactive Discovery and Development Director, BIOALVO S.A. from 2008 to 2014
- Project Manager, BIOALVO S.A. from 2006 to 2007
- Assistant Professor, Faculty of Medicine, University of Lisbon from 2002 to 2006
- Assistant Professor, University Lusófona Humanidades Tecnologias from 2000 to 2002
- Researcher, Faculty of Medical Sciences, New University of Lisbon from 1997 to 1999
- Assistant Professor, Institute of Health Technologies, Lisbon from 1997 to 1999

Fields of expertise

- Strong track record in Life Sciences with expertise in academic and SME contexts.
- Experience in project management, coordination of multi-disciplinary teams, intellectual property management and research funding.
- Understanding of the full healthcare value chain, from scientific research to product development.
- PhD in Biomedical Sciences, Faculty of Medicine, University of Lisbon, 2007.
- 5-year Degree in Biology, Faculty of Sciences and Technology, University of Coimbra, 1997.