

Solventa Krakauskaite

IMI States Representatives Group

Solventa Krakauskaite represents Lithuania in the IMI States Representatives Group and was nominated in December 2017.

Solventa has been working since 2014 as Researcher at Kaunas University of Technology. Kaunas University of Technology is a public largest technological higher education institution in Lithuania.

Previous positions

- IMI State Representative Group from 2018
- Senior Researcher at Health Telematics Science Institute at Kaunas University of Technology
- Associate Business Strategist at Neural Analytics, Inc., Los Angeles, US
- Project Coordinator at Health Telematics Science Centre at Kaunas University of Technology

Fields of expertise

- Doctor of Science in Technological Sciences from Kaunas University of Technology
- Master in Biomedical Engineering from Kaunas University of Technology
- Graduate of CITI program for Research Staff and Research Administration from University of Miami (2016)
- Fellowships at Harvard Medical School of Harvard University (2014 and 2016)