

Anthony Serracino Inglott

IMI States Representatives Group, Malta Representative

Anthony Serracino Inglott represents Malta in the IMI States Representatives Group.

Anthony Serracino Inglott has been working since 2013 as the Chairperson of the Malta Medicines Authority. The Malta Medicines Authority is the national competent authority for the regulation of medicines for human use and has the mission to protect and enhance public health through the regulation of medicinal products and pharmaceutical activities. Anthony Serracino Inglott has been working since 1989 as Professor at the Department of Pharmacy at the University of Malta where he is also the coordinator of the Pharmacy Practice Project module, coordinator of the Master of Science in Pharmacy and coordinator of the Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Technology. In 2015, Anthony Serracino Inglott was appointed Chairperson of the Malta Laboratories Network. The Malta Laboratories Network is a network of the laboratories based in Malta. This network focuses on the development, coordination and consistency of the laboratory services in Malta, and ensures the most effective and efficient use of resources across the network.

Previous positions

- Director, Institute of Health Care
- Head, Department of Pharmacy, Faculty of Medicine and Surgery
- Chairperson, Ethics Committee, Faculty of Medicine and Surgery
- Qualified Person in the Pharmaceutical Industry

Fields of expertise

- Bachelor of Pharmacy, University of Malta
- Doctor of Pharmacy, University of Cincinnati
- Resident Academic in Pharmacology and Pharmacy, Faculty of Medicine and Surgery, University of Malta

His research interests include regulatory sciences, biopharmaceutics and pharmacokinetics, clinical pharmacy and the determination of drugs in biological fluids and tissues.